*** NOVAK GETS 1st WIN AT COMET *****

Jerry Novak won his 1st ABT title by defeating Jack Keith 244-185 at Comet Lanes in Crest Hill, IL.

Steve Green opened the stepladder finals by defeating Al Legan 240-189. Jack Keith then defeated Steve 209-204 and followed up by defeating Jim Reed 225-155 to earn his place in the finals against top seeded Jerry Novak. Jerry jumped to an early lead with 4 strikes in the first 5 frames, and wound up staying clean throughout the match. Jack only opened once in the 4th frame, but had difficulty carrying, leaving three 7 pins and one 10 pin. Jerry was in control throughout the match and ended up victorious by a score of 244-185.

Champion's Profile: Jerry Novak is 77 years young and is enjoying his retirement. He has three grown children, Nancy, Natalie, and Matt. Jerry bowls league at Centennial Lanes and has been perfecting his game for 60 years. His high game is 287 and he also has a 687 series to his credit. He was throwing a Super Power Storm that was drilled by Lee Rodgers. Along with bowling, Jerry enjoys fishing, traveling, and gardening. He thanked new director Mike Fagan (No Jerry, Thank You! -Mike). He plans on using some of his winnings for a vacation he will enjoy fishing.

CONGRATULATIONS JERRY!

Tournament Notes:

Congratulations to Devin Knabenbauer who won our post card raffle. Devin will receive 1 paid entry into the Firecracker Singles event at AMF Rolling Meadows.

On a personal note, I wish to thank all of the members that came out to my first event making it a great success. I am looking forward to many events in the future and it's my sincerest hope that you enjoy the ABT experience each and every time you come out. Thanks again! Mike
