*** HANIK EARNS RED SHIRT AT COMET *****

Kevin Hanik won his 1st ABT title by defeating Mark Lopez 214-193 at Comet Lanes in Crest Hill, IL.

Brett Bukowinski opened the stepladder finals by defeating Steve Koszola 247-215. Brett continued his winning ways by defeating Ray Struck 234-211 before falling to Mark Lopez 191-183. That set up the championship match between Mark and top-seeded Kevin Hanik. Kevin started strong, opening with a 4-bagger, while Mark stayed clean. Kevin opened in the 5th, Mark countered with a strike in that frame, narrowing the gap. Mark doubled in the 8th and 9th, while Kevin opened in the 9th. Mark stepped up in the 10th frame with a chance to shut Kevin out, but left the 2-4-8-10. Kevin went on to win 214-193.

Champion's Profile: Kevin Hanik is 27 years old and is employed as an Instructional Assistant at Clarendon Hills Middle School. Kevin has been bowling for 23 years and does his league bowling at Oak Forest Bowl. His high game is 300 and he has an 811 series to his credit. He was rolling a Storm Banshee that was drilled by John Haney. Kevin would like to thank Comet Lanes for hosting the event, his students, all those who stayed to cheer him on, along with the ABT staff and directors. He said his winnings will be used for vacation.

CONGRATULATIONS KEVIN!

Tournament Notes:

Congratulations to Devin Knabenbauer who won our post card raffle. Devin will receive 1 paid entry into the Firecracker Singles event at AMF Rolling Meadows.

On a personal note, I wish to thank all of the members that came out to my first event making it a great success. I am looking forward to many events in the future and it's my sincerest hope that you enjoy the ABT experience each and every time you come out. Thanks again! Mike
